For RAOB 6.2 users only. The latest version contains serial numbers beginning with 6269, so if the first 4 digits of your RAOB serial number are less, you should download the latest program update using RAOB's Help menu (RAOB Program Updates) for the download link, or just use this direct link: http://www.raob.com/filelinks/raob62update.htm This update contains improvements to the Basic program, plus the Special Decoders and Cross-Section modules.

RAOB Station Locator File. RAOB.STN has again been updated. If you routinely use WMO coded data, you should download this update;

RAOB User Hint. Not only does RAOB analyze cross-section data, but you can also print the actual data on the cross-section diagram. To do this, first call up the Toolbar with the Analyze menu, then just CTRL-Click any Toolbar Button (such as Wind Speed) to print the respective data. This is a great feature for educational purposes.

RAOB Customer Quote of the Month (from a US Government R&D facility):
'We use this product everyday and are amazed each time we use it.'

RAOB 6.3 Beta program. Development of the RAOB 6.3 Beta program continues. The Beta now contains a new Vaisala RS92 decoder for English and Metric formatted units. Just in time for tornado season and after many customer requests, RAOB can now forecast the Maximum Surface Temperature and automatically adjust the sounding profile and all associated index displays. This feature also comes with a complete set of user configurable solar heating options. If you have made a RAOB 6.2 purchase, you are eligible to use the 6.3 Beta program now since you will be eligible for this free upgrade when RAOB 6.3 is released later this year. If you want to use the RAOB 6.3 Beta program now, or are not sure of your eligibility, just contact wxx@raob.com and provide your RAOB serial number. Use the below link to view the growing list of RAOB 6.3 Beta enhancements...
